NOTICE.

No money shall be disbursed by the treasurer, except in payment of checks bearing the approval of the chairman of the executive committee, Wm. M. Galt, and countersigned by Dorsey Clagett, secretary of the executive committee.

The treasurer shall report to the executive committee, at each meeting thereof, the amount of disbursements and the balances on hand.

It is deemed advisable to announce, that while the several committees herein named will spare no pains or exertion to extend to all visitors a hearty welcome, and to make every possible provision for their comfort, whether coming as individuals or as associations, or military organizations, that the free entertainment of any portion of them is beyond their means or power, and that no applications of such a character will be considered. They hope, however, assisted and sustained by all classes of citizens, to keep prices for every variety of service down to ordinary rates, and can be relied on in every way to prevent extortion or extravagant charges.

COMMITTEES ON INAUGURATION.

General Committee.

The Committee of Fifty appointed by the National Democratic Committee, shall be known as the General Committee, and shall have supervisory charge of all matters pertaining to the celebration. Fifteen members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. The committee is composed and officered as follows:

Committee on Public Order.

The Committee on Public Order shall, in co-operation with the District Commissioners and the Police, take all necessary steps pertaining to the good order of the city during the period of the inauguration. It shall establish headquarters at some central place during such period, where, under charge of an officer of the Police Department, proper aid or assistance may be given to any visitor requiring it, and where lost articles may be stored and reclaimed. This committee may, if found desirable and practicable, provide for a special force of citizen police, to be under the control and general direction of the chief of police, for the maintenance of order.
